KENYA NATIONAL SCHOOL OF COMMUNITY NETWORKS 2022

SETTING INTENTION

CODE OF CONDUCT

KNSC
Kenya National School of CNs

The Kenya National School of Community Network is committed to enabling platform at which everyone can participate in an inclusive, respectful and safe environment

Those who take part in Kenya national school of community network agree to:

- Treat all members of the KNSCN community equally, irrespective of gender, ethnic origin, religion or beliefs, disability, age, or sexual orientation; all should treat each other with civility.
- Focus discussion or remarks on issues rather than on particular actors, whether they be individuals, groups, organizations or governments, and refrain from ad hominem attacks.
- Act in a reasonable, objective and informed manner when participating in and/or using any KNSCN discussion platform.
- Listen and respect the views of all. We should acknowledge the importance of all stakeholders and seek to understand their points of view.
- Act fairly and in good faith with other participants.
- Harassment in any form because of gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, physical ability, physical appearance, ethnicity, race, national origin, political affiliation, age, religion or any other reason is prohibited at the KNSCN
- Promote ethical and responsible behavior. Ethics and integrity are essential, and TNET expects all participants to behave in a responsible and principled way.
